

Peace or Poverty!

Politicians say we cannot afford to make payments above poverty rates to unemployed people and students.

At the same time, they say we can spend $368 billion on ill-considered nuclear submarines.

What can you do?

Come to our forum.

Hear the facts on why we can and must spend more on becoming a fairer society and less on becoming a militaristic one.

Kristin O'Connell

Antipoverty Centre

Sue Wareham

MAPW

Len Baglow

Against the Wind

Learn and discuss how you can work for Peace and Justice.

When: 6:30 pm to 8:45 pm, Saturday the 7th of October. (Drinks and nibbles from 6:30 pm)

Where: Woden Valley Uniting Church Hall, 40 Gillies Street, Curtin, ACT.

Cost: Free but donations accepted.

Booking: Email againstthewind.wvuc@gmail.com

It is important to book, as seats are limited, and this will be a popular event.

Zoom: We have around 20 zoom places for people who can't come in person. Please book on the above email.

Zoom participants will have an opportunity to join in the discussions.

A Forum organised by Against the Wind